APPENDIX

LABOR TODAY

In January, 1962, a source advised that on January 13, 1962, GUS HALL, whom the source described as General Secretary of the Communist Party, USA, remarked that the Party-supported trade-union publication would be issued in the near future and would appear under the name "Labor Today."

On January 5, 1962, records in the Assumed Name Section of the County Clerk's Office, Wayne County, Detroit, Michigan, indicated that Certificate Number 145344, issued for conducting business under an assumed name, was issued to "Labor Today" (a bimonthly publication) having a business address at 12065 Wyoming, Detroit 4, Michigan. A certificate was filed January 2, 1962, and the names of the persons listed as owning, conducting and transacting the business were:

A second source advised on December 15, 1961, that [redacted] was then a member of the Michigan District Communist Party (MDCP) [redacted]. This source advised on September 18, 1959, that [redacted] was then a member of the MDCP [redacted].

A third source advised on September 21, 1961, that as of September 17, 1961, [redacted] was a member of [redacted] [redacted] the MDCP.

The Founding Statement contained in the first issue of "Labor Today" (Spring, 1962) indicated that two additional issues would be forthcoming in 1962 and beginning in 1963, "Labor Today" would appear regularly as a "bi-monthly journal."

The masthead of bimonthly "Labor Today," Volume 3, No. 1, February - March, 1964, issue, describes the publication as "An Independent Journal of Discussion." [redacted] and business and editorial offices are located at 12065 Wyoming, Suite 5, Detroit 4, Michigan.

BROWN was contacted under provisions relating to the Toplev Program on 2/24/67, on West 43rd Street, between Seventh and Eighth Avenues, New York City. The interview was conducted by SA [redacted] with SA [redacted] observing the contact from nearby. (U) (R) (u)

BROWN readily acknowledged his identity when approached and immediately inquired as to the reason for the contact. When he was apprised of the agent's identity, he quickly stated that he had nothing to say and continued on his way. Efforts to engage him in a conversation of a general nature were rebuffed in the same manner. The interview was terminated when it was apparent that he would not alter his stand. (R) (u)

BROWN did not appear perturbed by the contact, however, he was firm in his refusal to cooperate in any way. No further contact will be made with him at this time. (R) (u)
